According to the committee, the eight international federations representing each sport will have until July 22 to submit further details of their plans. The committee will then pick one or more additional events and propose it to the International Olympic Committee, which will make the final decision at the 129th IOC session in Rio de Janeiro in August 2016.

Olympics. Those who didn't make the cut include American football, billiards, chess, sumo and tug of war.
